[AS AMENDED IN COMMITTEE]

TO

Advance time by one hour throughout the year for an experimental period; and for connected purposes.

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1 Time for general purposes

Subject to section 3 of the Summer Time Act 1972 (c. 6) (interpretation of references) the time for general purposes shall be one hour in advance of Greenwich mean time.

2 Amendment of the Summer Time Act 1972

5

In section 1(1) of the Summer Time Act 1972 (advance of time during period of summer time) for “one hour” substitute “two hours”.

3 Amendment of the Interpretation Act 1978

For section 9 of the Interpretation Act 1978 (c. 30) (references to time of day) substitute—

10

“Whenever an expression of time occurs in an Act, the time referred to shall, unless it is otherwise specifically stated, be held to be the time established by the Lighter Evenings (Experiment) Act 2006, for so long as that Act is in force.”

4 Amendment of the Scotland Act 1998

15

In section L5 (time) of Schedule 5 (reserved matters) to the Scotland Act 1998 (c. 46), insert as the first entry under the cross-heading Exceptions—

“The subject-matter of the Lighter Evenings (Experiment) Act 2006”.

5 Short title, commencement and extent

- (1) This Act may be cited as the Lighter Evenings (Experiment) Act 2006.
- (2) This Act shall come into force—
 - (a) in England at two o'clock in the morning of 29th October 2006,
 - (b) in Wales on such day (if any) as the National Assembly for Wales may by order made by statutory instrument appoint, and shall expire at two o'clock in the morning of 25th October 2009.
- (3) This Act extends to the whole of the United Kingdom.
